MEMORANDUM

DATE: May 8, 1980
TO: The Press
FROM: Communication Office/Episcopal Church
SUBJECT: June 4-6 Meeting of Executive Council

80169

MAY 19 1980

The Executive Council of the Episcopal Church will meet JUNE 4-6 at Seabury House, Greenwich, Conn. Members of the press are invited to attend the meeting, though housing is not available at Seabury House. Motor hotels are available in the area. The press may take meals at Seabury House; reservations should be made in advance. Payment for meals taken at Seabury House should be made directly to the manager.

According to the proposed agenda, the Council will begin with Holy Eucharist on WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4 at 8:30 a.m. This service will be followed at 9:30 by a plenary session which will include reports by the treasurer, the secretary, and the General Convention's executive officer. In special orders of business at 10:00 a.m., the Council will consider reports of the nominations committee and of the long range planning and coordinating team program. Standing committees will convene at 11:30 a.m. and will meet through the afternoon and evening.

On THURSDAY, JUNE 5, standing committees will continue their meetings until called to a plenary session for the consideration of reports. (Although no specific times for reporting are scheduled, the standing committees will report on Thursday and Friday in the following order: Communication, Education for Mission and Ministry, Finance/Administration/Venture, National Mission/Social Responsibility in Investments, Stewardship/Development, and World Mission.) Standing committees will meet Thursday evening if necessary.

The session on FRIDAY, JUNE 6 will begin with the Holy Eucharist at 7:30 a.m., with the Rev. Herbert Donovan as celebrant. Standing committee reports will continue at the 9:00 a.m. plenary session. The Council is scheduled to adjourn at noon.

The above schedule will be proposed for approval by the agenda committee and is thus tentative. The schedule may be changed during the course of the Council meeting.
